

Buck Bresson

Westerns are as much a part of Americana as baseball and apple pie, and Carl L. Brown's Buck Bresson holds its own in the genre of Western fiction. All the components we have come to expect from stories of the Wild West—a manly man, his horse, a womanly woman, the saloon girl, and the villain—imaginatively portrayed in this classic saga of good versus evil. We all know that in the traditional Western, the good guy always wins and gets the girl. Despite this given, Buck Bresson gives us a galloping ride back to when a man's best friends were his horse and his gun, and the old frontier was filled with adventure.
