

Reel To Real Murder: A Task Force Novelette (Task Force Series)

When Harri Lewis (aka Agent Proteus) isn't working a major crime case with the specialized Federal Task Force Division, she is happily working as a special effects makeup artist in Hollywood. While working on the set of a horror movie, a simulated murder turns into a real homicide. When local law enforcement can't solve the case, Proteus discretely steps in. She uses her advanced knowledge and surrealistic technology, trying desperately to track down the killer.
