

Wallys Touch

Wally Touch is a funeral director that has the gift of touch! He is given an opportunity to purchase a beautiful funeral home from a funeral director that lost his wife to cancer. Wally is called into a home of a wealthy banker to remove the wife after her death. As Wally makes physical contact with the woman, he sees her entire life before his eyes. He sees her as a young woman, middle aged as well as older...he sees the wonderful and important times in her life lived. This just from a simple touch. After the encounter, he shares his experience with his wife and his best friend. Wally has the same visions with every deceased body that he took in his care. Wally experienced that good and bad of many people that he comes in contact with. His life changed forever when he met Mr. Ross Salvator who was involved in unsolved murders from the 1980s. Wally is thrown into the public limelight and never regains his normal life.
